

EARL N. COLBY, 63, DIES IN YPSILANTI

Ypsilanti, March 12—Earl N. Colby, 63, died Sunday at the Beyer hospital following an operation for cancer of the stomach.

Mr. Colby was one of the substantial and well known citizens of this city where he had lived the greater part of his life. He was a jeweler early in life and had been alderman and police commissioner of the city. For the past 15 years he has been traveling salesman for the Michigan Ladder Co. He was formerly a member of the Masonic order but had dropped out. He was a member of the Macabees at the time of his death.

Mr. Colby is survived by his wife and two children, a daughter, Alice, and a son, Glenn. He also has a brother, William of Lansing, and a sister, Mrs. Viola March of Laingsburg. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday at the house. Burial will be made in Denton cemetery.

OBITUARY

Earl N. Colby.

Earl N. Colby, aged 63 years, 409 Mapl street, died Sunday at Beyer hospital, following an operation for cancer of the stomach. The deceased was a well known citizen of this city, where he had lived the greater part of his life. He was early in life a jeweler and had been alderman and police commissioner of the city. For the past 15 years he was a traveling salesman for the Michigan Ladder company. He was a member of the Maccabees at the time of his death. He is survived by his wife and two children, a daughter, Alice, and a son, Glenn. He also has a brother, William, of Lansing, and a sister, Mrs. Viola Marsh, of Laingsburg. Funeral services were held Wednesday at the house at 2 p. m. Burial followed in Denton cemetery.

Earl Colby, of Ypsilanti, died at Beyer hospital Sunday morning. Mr. Colby was very well known in this community and was highly respected. He is survived by his wife, a son and daughter. The funeral was held Wednesday at 2 o'clock, with interment in the Deston cemetery.

Council Notes

A communication was read expressing the appreciation of the Colby family for flowers sent by the Council at the time of the death of Earl Colby who was an alderman for a number of years.