

BRADY.—Thrzah L. Culp was born December 9, 1857, in Newaygo county, Michigan, and departed this life at her home near Morley, Michigan, March 14, 1908. She was married to Eugene Brady, November 8, 1874. Fourteen children were born to this union, two of whom have gone before. Her husband, twelve children, twelve grandchildren, two brothers, four sisters and many friends are left to mourn her death. She was converted in the year 1885, under the labors of Rev. W. Orr, and joined the Free Methodist church, in which she was an active member at the time of her last sickness and death. For the past two years she has been a great sufferer, but was not confined to her bed until the last three months. She was fully ready to meet her God. The last the writer heard her say was, "It will all be over soon." Her last night on earth she sang and shouted the praises of God. Her pastor, C. G. Miller, preached from Revelation 7:14 to a large congregation of friends. Interment in the cemetery near Morley, to await the great resurrection morning.
